Why Choose RE/MAX? Guide for Real Estate Agents

By the end of 2011 all estate agents will have to prove they have been properly trained and are sufficiently knowledgeable to sell you a house. Estate agents are aware of this, the Estate Agency Affairs Board (EAAB) is in control of this and the Services Sector Education and Training Authority (SSETA) is supposed to facilitate this.

In 2008 the EAAB (Estate Agency Affairs Board) tightened the requirements for entry into the field of Real Estate. This preceded a drop in the South African market following the devastation in the American mortgage market. The recession in South Africa saw approximately two thirds of estate agents who had registered in 2008 leave the sector to re-qualify.
